CORDIAL LINVICORATING CORDIAL

TOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Mukcular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or amy of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, readers it the most valuable preparation ever discovered In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands un rivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically reserved the sanction of the rivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and mever before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, inespective to study or business, less of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were inourable. This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bottly interesting the processing and bottly interesting the process.

is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the nail and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, a following testimony of the names received will concludy show:

mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, presured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures cut of the question. The propristor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimeny to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MRDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION
of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not took will cure me."

Another says: "I had compiled took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely rouned me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morse's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but de good. Beware, of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Maryland, on the left hand side, going from Baltimore street, seven doors from the corner. Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will metable the place.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphis, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with righing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE

ea sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solitary habit, which rule both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, vir: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Binness of Sight, Lose of Muscular Power, Papitation of the Heart, Dyspeysia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digustive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Fail Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the svils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice se fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they aseribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by induiging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to Society. NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Society, DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OR-GANIC WEAKNESS.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEARNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculities become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallem fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emachsted and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Bush persons, before contemplating.

Should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happinese. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect thourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicasy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentlemap, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guaranty that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physician.

TAKE NOTICE.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not full to fall into the hands of these imprudent, boasting impostors—individthe hands of these imprudent, boasting impostors—individuals destitute of knowledge, name, and character—pedlars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you trifling month after month, as long as possible, and in deepair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for healone can care you. To those unacquainted with his reputation he deems it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

[WRITTEN FOR THE DAILY AMERICAN TELEGRAPH.] Fainting Frank, the Volunteer!

BY A VOLUNTEER.

-Tune-"Long Time Ago." When he went forth to the battle,
Way down below,
And he heard the cannon rattle
In Mexico,
His head grew sick—his heart grew faint—
Way down below;
And down into a ditch he went,
In Mexico.

His horse looked at him as he lay,
Way down below,
And thus right plainly seemed to say—
In Mexico—
"Why, Master Frank, what are you about
Way down below;
Don't you hear the battle shout
In Mexico?

"Come, get up out of that ar mud," Way down below;
And show off now your ' Hickory' blood.
In Mexico.
Sure, you're not frightened by that noise
Way down below;
Got up by them 'yallor beys'
In Mexico!

"'Old Zack' has 'licked' them many a time,
Way down below;
When fresh and in their very prime,
In Mexico!
And being 'licked' on every field
Way down below;
And ready quite to run or yield,
In Mexico—

They can again be 'licked' as handy,
Way down below,
As the boys lick sugar candy
In Mexico.
And, master, I den't like one bit—
Way down below—
To see you fall before you're hit,
In Mexico.

"Then mount again, right on my back, Way down below; My motto 'Whitey,' yours 'Old Zach,' In Mexico!" But there he lay, just like one dead,
Way down below;
Not heeding what his charger said,
In Mexico,
Until at length seme soldiers near,
Way down below,

Espied their "gallant" brigadier, In Mexico. With pitying eye and heartfelt grief,
Way down below,
They rallied all to his relief,
In Mexico.
They took him from his lowly bed,
Way down below;
And washed his face and combed his head,
In Mexico.

Then softly laid him by to rest,
Way down balow;
With none but mud stains on his breast,
In Mexico.
Secure there from the battle fray,
Way down below;
He "snoozed" the passing hours away
In Mexico.

But after a while, when all grew still,
Way down below;
And hushed, too, was the clarion shrill,
In Mexico;
He gently raised up on his knees,
Way down below,
To catch what lingered in the breeze,
In Mexico.

But after a while, when all grew still,

Then bounding up, with active spring,
Way down below.
Says he, "I swow, I hate this thing
In Mexico,
Of soldiering, and its alarms,
Way down below;
For me they really have no charms,
In Mexico. "I was a 'pace man' when I came, Way down below; And to this hour remain the same In Mexico. So good by all, a fond adieu, Way down below;

I can no longer stay with you In Mexico." And thus, before the war was done, Way down below, He left us, every "mother's son," In Mexico. And that was all that we did hear, Way down below. Way down below, Of fainting Frank, the volunteer,

In Mexico.

and truthful account of the whole motter.

Major General Winfield Scott we recognise and

tioned the Religious Test as a blot or stigma upon | true Irish heart must burn with gratitude to the dead letter, and other things which are really the battle of Queenstown, himself then a prisoner laughable. Early in the convention Judge Woodbury had made known his intention to offer an the British authorities, that for every Irishman's amendment, at a proper time, by striking out life they dared to sacrifice, the life of a true the word "Protestant" from the sixth article of Englishman should pay the forfeit; and thus he the Bill of Rights. When the time arrived, Mr. preserved from the gallows twenty-three of our Pierce reminded him of it, and he did so, and it was stricken out, and this is the sum and substance of what he did in the convention to have the odious Test removed, and how far this may be considered a "powerful effort" we leave others to judge. Many of us were under the impression that he had done more until we examined the report for ourselves. What he had done at town meetings in Concord, or elsewhere, we know not; sure it is that his speeches, if he made any, have the sum of the sum o reported in the Democratic papers Michael Wallace, throughout the country concerning the liberality Anthony Jordan, of the "Democracy" of this State, we would have Catholics mighty cautions, for as we can assure James Duras, them by partial experience, and as the votes in the late elections on the revision of the constitutions of the constitution of tion have shown, more determined enemies of the rights of Catholics, there are not in the country, than the Democrats of New Hampshire. That the LAND WARRANTS BOUGHT and SOLD papers of that party throughout the State advo-table the Bank of the Union. WILLIAM T. EVANS.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH. ing. We know that the organs of the same party throughout the country have always appeared strong in their love of Catholics and Irishmen, and we also know how they have treated them when anything concerning their interests came

> All anti-Catholic bigots, whether Whig or Democrat, (and we know there are a plenty of both,) we heartily despise; yet we prefer the bold and daring characters among them to the soft hearted, liberty-loving souls, who are always so enthusi-astic in our welfare that there is little danger of a hair of our head even being harmed in their a hair of our head even being harmed in their presence—except, however, that they find a good safe chance to burn us alive. Every one knows the flattery used by that party to catch the votes of Catholics previous to—ay, and since—the agitation of the school question in New York city, and how they treated us in that affair. Again: when they went into power in Massachuseits in '45, with the express understanding that they were to "do something" in the convent question, we all know what they did—it is easily told we all know what they did-it is easily told-nothing. Still later, with our war with Mexico, and when that party was so deeply interested in everything that concerned us that they applied for Catholic chaplains to attend the Catholic soldiers in the army, and when our forces had so far got possession of the country that they thought they could try it safely, we well know how cosily they proposed robbing the churches in that country, and applying the plunder to the expenses of the war. All this we remember; and, as far as it depends on our efforts, posterity shall also remember it.

For the Whigs to do this, might raise our disgust and indignation, but not our surprise: for we believe they never have pretended to be an dead in love with us as the other party. It was the blow from the dagger of Brutus that more than all others carried death to the heart of Cæsar. We will not provoke the laughter of any one who may read this by gravely telling them that this is not for electioneering purposes; on the contrary, we wish it understood that it is for the purposes of party that we publish this. And while we openly avow our preference for the party who, although they have seldom manifested any great regard for us, are steady advocates of protection to home industry, we wish to show our aversion to that part which has always flattered and so often deceived us. B. P. Runnels,
